

OUR LITURGY

Jonah is called by God to proclaim the time of judgment to Nineveh. The people hear and reform their lives. Paul calls the people to an awareness that Jesus and the Spirit have brought about a new age. In the Gospel, we hear that the reign of God is at hand. All are called to reform their lives according to God's will; to love one another.

FROM THE DESK OF FR. MIKE

“I tell you brothers and sisters, that time is running out...For the world in its present form is passing away.” “This is the time of fulfillment. The Kingdom of God is at hand. Repent, and believe in the gospel.”

Ever get the sense that there is not enough time to get everything done? This is certainly true during the Christmas and New Year's Holidays, when it seems that we cannot possibly get all of the shopping, the decorating (inside and out) done, and then prepare for guests. Yet, in most cases it all gets done, because we call upon strengths or talents we really didn't know we had or don't always want to show to the rest of the world because we will be expected to do it all the time. St. Mark's Gospel and St. Paul's Letter this week reminds us that in reality there is not a great deal of time at hand. While it is true in the early days of the Church they expected Christ to come back almost immediately, and we now we have been waiting for over 2000 years for Christ to return. It is also true that we do not know the hour or the day when Christ will come back, and we can't go around looking for signs or omens to predict it. Remember, Jesus tells us in the Gospel that only the Father in Heaven knows! So, we may have to wait another 2000 years or we may have only another 2, or 3, or 20 years, who knows? What we do know, as we see in today's gospel, is the call is given and we are to act upon it, and use those hidden strengths and talents for building the Kingdom of God. It is every Christian's job to do this, not just the job of Bishops, Priests, Deacons, Religious Brothers and Sisters or Professional Lay Church Workers. It is everybody's job and we must do our part, for we do not have forever. No, we only have the time allotted to us in this world to do our share. Keep in mind that Christ Himself will ask us when we see Him face to face what have done and what have we failed to do!

Notice if you will, how Mark's Gospel is laid out. Unlike Matthew, Luke or John there is no Infancy Narrative or Prologue. Mark gets right to the point, starting with John the Baptist, The Baptism of The Lord, and then the call of the First Disciples. So, get busy just like Mark is telling us! But how do I do my part, where should I direct my strengths and talents? Follow the Gospel Message especially as seen in the story of the Good Samaritan, The Beatitudes, Matthew Chapter 25, and The Prodigal Son, and so much more. Pray become one with God by coming to know God in Communal Prayer (as seen when we gather for Mass and the celebration of the Sacraments), and through our individual one-on-one prayer, in which we share with God our entire life. Repent, change your life move away from sin and believe in the Gospel, and answer the call just like Simon (Peter), Andrew, James and John.

Last weekend we began this year's Catholic Ministries Appeal. After Special Consideration, the Appeal Office has given Saint Joseph's the same goal as we had last year. They reached this decision because they realized that we did not reach the goal last year, but we came so close. So, they wanted to give us another shot at reaching the goal and finally realizing the full amount of the rebate coming to St. Joseph's. I do know that we can do it this year, and we really should try because it is a win/win situation. The more we raise the more we are helping our brothers and sisters throughout the Diocese-in a way we could not help them individually or as one parish. The more we raise, the more we help St. Joseph's. We do this in two ways! One, some of the people helped through Catholic Charities belong to our parish, the support given to our Catholic Schools, helps our own St. Joseph's School and our students who attend Catholic High Schools. Support given to the Ministries Appeal also supports Religious Education in the Parishes, especially our program here directed by Jane Favale, Cathy Foy, Gloria Napolitano and the work of so many others. There is also Adult Formation (The Pastoral Formation Institute, Masters of Arts Degree in Theology –at the Seminary) and the training of Deacons and Priests for service as Ordained Ministers for the Diocese. In our parish, we have two men studying to become Deacons and of course, several members of our parish have become priests, and St. Joseph's has served as a wonderful training ground for Pastoral Year Seminarians like Lachlan and Lee-The Ministries Appeal helps make all this happen. The other way we help St. Joseph's is the more we raise, the more of a rebate we receive and thus the Appeal becomes an almost painless Fund Raiser. Please give to this worthwhile Appeal, and if you have never made a donation before, please consider it this year. If it has been a while since you made a donation, now is the time to reconsider, and if you gave last year, please give again, and if you are able to make a higher donation (to help us make our goal) please help. Thank you, so much in advance for your wonderful support of the Catholic Ministries Appeal and for helping St. Joseph's get its full share of the rebate.

Tomorrow following a special Mass at 4:30 AM, a bus will leave St. Joseph's for the Annual March on Washington to protest against Abortion. If you are making the trip or want to support those making it please join us at the Mass or pray especially on this day to change people's hearts and minds.

Next week is the start of Catholic Schools Week and we invite you to come and tour our own beautiful St. Joseph's School. See the bulletin for all the activities and wonderful opportunities to our young people that a

RESPECT LIFE

Today as you read this, many people here in our parish are preparing for the most important Life event of the year, the 33rd Annual March for Life. Those of us who are not going to Washington, D.C. to do the actual March will be praying for the success of the purpose of the March, the reversal of Roe v. Wade. This law allows for the legal killing of children, at no matter the gestational age, one day or the whole nine months.

Dr. Seuss' book, Horton Hears a Who, tells us that "a person's a person, no matter how small." How true that is. Consider that at fertilization, 23 chromosomes from the father's sperm & 23 chromosomes from the mother's ovum combine to form a brand new one-cell human being, which is called a zygote, which is already genetically an individual human being, & a "he" or a "she." Each of the 46 chromosomes is composed of genes, or units of DNA, which contain all the genetic information of the new life. Will he be tall? Will she have blond hair? Will he be athletic? Will she be musical? Of course, many other more serious matters will be decided by those genes. Here's how it goes for the first 11 weeks of our new life:

24 hours The zygote divides to form a two-cell embryo.

Day 2 The cells continue to divide every 12 to 15 hours.

Day 3 Four cells divide to make 8, then 16.

Day 4 Early blastocyst stage. The growing embryo has entered the uterus.

Day 7 Embryo seeks nourishment in the womb as implantation begins.

Week 3 The heart begins to beat & neural folds & divisions of the brain appear.

Week 5 The face is taking shape; the forehead, eyes, nostrils & mouth are evident; external ears are beginning; hands & feet are forming.

Week 6 Brain waves can be measured!

Week 8 The stomach, liver, kidneys & brain are functioning. Fingerprints have formed.

Week 11 Now 3 inches long, all of the baby's organs are complete & functioning. The baby breathes (fluid), swallows, digests, sleeps, wakes & has developed all the body parts required to experience pain. From this point on, all the child needs to become a healthy newborn is nourishment & time to grow.

Pope John Paul II, in his homily at Giant Stadium in 1995, urged that "As Americans & as followers of Christ, American Catholics must be committed to the defense of life in all its stages & in every condition."

St. Kilian, Farmingdale, Respect Life Dec. 4, 2005

A note of thanks to St. Regis Council, Knights of Columbus, for their continuing generosity in providing the buses for the Ronkonkoma delegation to the 33rd Annual March for Life, on Monday, January 23rd. Year after year, they come through!
